Trinity Sunday

The Holy Trinity, (2023) Natalya Rusetska Natalya Rusetska "The Holy Trinity" (iconart-gallery.com)

I find myself increasingly enchanted by style of sacred art that seems to have been adopted by Ukrainian artists and icon writers. There is something in the gentle use of colour and simplicity of shape that is timeless and therefore so reassuring. This is also true of the Holy Trinity found at the heart of our faith. Like a dance that invites us to join in without having to know all the steps, the Trinity is the Trinity, a beautiful mystery of love.

Blessings and Prayers, Mother Cherry

Nikki's Notes

Planning has begun for activities during the summer and beyond, starting with Monday Fundays throughout July & August.
We need teams of people for the following: welcoming, refreshments, talking & listening, ideas & planning, set up/tidy up and of course most importantly to pray!
What are your gifts and how could you use them to serve children, families and young people in our community?
Please get in touch to share your ideas or find out more. Nikki - 07309 749495 stmarkscfy@gmail.com
