

We pray for the church around the world:

Especially those who are persecuted for their faith. We pray for compassion and kindness, inclusion and love for all. We pray for all who have not yet let Jesus into their lives.

We pray for our world: All the casualties of war and conflict; victims of natural or manmade disasters; those who are living in poverty or under oppressive regimes; for all who have no safe place to live in. For the earth and all the damage done to it by humankind. For more empathy and compassion

We pray for our local community: [2:

Our parish is a member of Inclusive Church. This means that we are committed to work towards being a church which celebrates and affirms every person and does not discriminate on grounds of disability, economic power, ethnicity, gender, gender identity, learning disability, mental health, neurodiversity, or sexuality. Please help us to work towards our aims.

All Saints

Albrecht Durer [1511] The Landau Altarpiece

Dürer was commissioned to paint an altarpiece for the chapel dedicated to All Saints, which was to show the adoration of the Holy Trinity by the communion of the saints with all Christians. The Trinity is in the centre of the picture: God the Father is enthroned on the clouds and holds the crucified Christ. Above it hovers the Holy Spirit in the form of a dove. Today is the Solemnity of all Saints. The Church celebrates the memory of the countless holy men and women from different origins and nationalities (cf. Rev. 7:9), heroes and heroines of Christian faith and witnesses of Christian charity through their lives. Saint Augustine shares us three simple reasons why we do celebrate their memory: first, for inspiration from their examples; second, for participation in their merits and lastly, for the intercession of our prayers.
