

We pray for the church around the world:
Especially those who are persecuted for their faith.
We pray for compassion and kindness, inclusion and love for all. We pray for all who have not yet let Jesus into their lives.

We pray for our world: All the casualties of war and conflict; victims of natural or manmade disasters; those who are living in poverty or under oppressive regimes; for all who have no safe place to live in. For the earth and all the damage done to it by humankind. For more empathy and compassion

Holy Innocents

The Massacre of the Holy Innocents, Léon Cogniet [1824]

Last week's artwork depicted the gentle Joseph, a man whose integrity and faithfulness leads to him being entrusted with the care of Mary and the baby Jesus. This week we hear of another man and how his greed, selfishness, weakness and lack of empathy led to a terrible massacre of the most vulnerable in society. In this painting the artist focuses on a mother desperately hoping to save her baby from the soldiers. It is not part of the Christmas story that makes for a lovely nativity play but it does remind us of the those most vulnerable around the world, caught up in the political upheavals, wars and conflicts perpetuated by the powerful. Let us pray for all those innocents. Blessings, Mother Cherry
